NEWS RELEASE

September 3, 2009

Another $200,000 Powerball ticket sold in ND

The winner of a North Dakota Lottery $200,000 Match Five Powerball prize collected the money today at the North Dakota Lottery headquarters. The identity of the lucky player will not be made public, as the winner chose to remain anonymous.

The winning ticket, sold for the September 2 drawing, was purchased at the Osgood Hornbacher's store located at 4151 45th Street South in Fargo.

"You never think it will happen to you," said the lucky winner, "but it can happen and we won." On a whim, the winner chose to purchase $2 worth of Powerball tickets while grocery shopping. "We usually only play when the jackpot gets to $150 million, but I just thought I should buy one on Wednesday after I finished shopping." The winner plans to pay off their home, maybe purchase a different car and maybe, just maybe, get their son an X-Box.

The Powerball ticket is the second Match Five winning ticket sold by the North Dakota Lottery within a month's time. The first $200,000 ticket, purchased for the August 1 drawing and also sold in Fargo, went to Clayton Kuhlemeyer of Dilworth, MN.

The ticket was not purchased with Power Play. If a Match Five prize is purchased with Power Play the prize value increases by five times, to one million dollars.
